Conrad’s Harley Davidson*

When the Conrad family—dad Ray, sons Darren and Patrick—needed more space for their booming Harley-Davidson motorcycle business, they got their financial support at First Community Bank.

With 80% of their customers based in Will County, the Conrad’s know the value of “keeping it local.” They believe it makes good sense to do business with a banking partner that is as invested in Will County as they are.

“Our First Community banker is friendly, approachable, and ready to support our hometown business expansion,” says Ray.

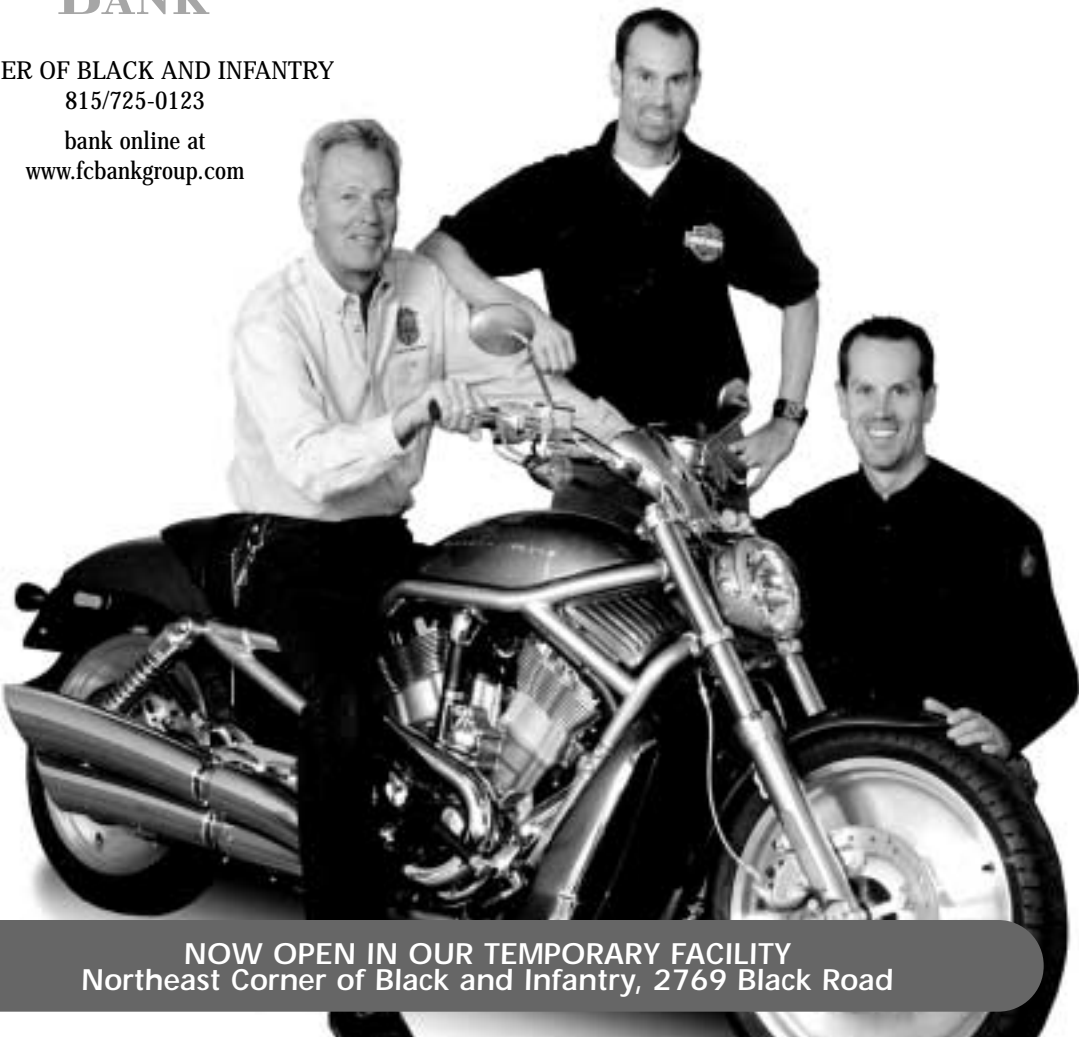

If you are ready for the advantages that local bank connections offer, come to First Community Bank of Joliet, where people come first.
