

“Local ties make banking quicker, friendlier, easier.”

Whether investing in farm equipment, real estate or financial securities, the Dollingers make smart decisions and support community businesses.

Those guiding principles brought them to First Community Bank as investors and clients.

Invested in the Joliet area since 1852, the Dollingers understand the advantage of local ties. At First Community, they have immediate access to local decision makers, and a comfort level with a local banker who knows them, understands their business needs and is eager to forge a trusted relationship with each family member.

If you are ready to enjoy the privileges that local banking provides, move to First Community Bank, where people come first.

“AS LOCAL BUSINESS OWNERS, WE WELCOME THE ADVANTAGES OF WORKING WITH A LOCAL BANK.”
