

“Better care starts with better listening. My bank knows that, too.”

“AT FIRST
COMMUNITY BANK,
I’M TREATED LIKE A
PERSON, NOT AN ACCOUNT.”

Thomas Kron, MD, FACS
ENT surgeon

Dr. Thomas Kron knows the difference between hearing and listening. As a otolaryngological surgeon, he successfully treats ear, nose and throat conditions to many patients in our community. “We listen carefully, taking time to get to know our patients. That knowledge helps us provide better care. Our bank operates the same way.”

By listening to your needs, First Community bankers provide financial solutions that improve your financial health. If you want that kind of service, come see us today.
