You’d expect Divas Salon and Spa to have a lot of fans—and they do. But when their beauty business boomed, owners Angie DiGiusto and Judy Tomasino needed a major business expansion. They discovered that the big banks were slow to back their efforts.

“First Community Bank not only admired Divas’ decade of steady growth and profitability, they applauded plans to expand our services and our space. With FCB support, our business is really humming!”

FCB bankers are partial to small businesses with big talent and smart ideas. We’re eager to hear about yours.
