

“These bankers not only know our name, they smile.”

Joliet Orthodontist Dr. Clarence J. Red, III and his wife Linzette have been in the smile business for nearly a decade. It's no surprise that they notice genuine personal service accompanied by a friendly smile—the kind of service that seems to be a lost art.

When the Reds had an opportunity to become investors and clients at First Community Bank, they were influenced by knowing they would be treated like friends, not strangers. By strengthening their community connections through a hometown bank, they enjoy becoming part of a network that helps grow their practice.

You too can experience a new level of personal commitment, first-name familiarity and the advantage of local connections when you choose First Community Bank. Plus, you'll get service with a smile.

“GREAT SERVICE AND HELPFUL CONNECTIONS CONVINCED US TO DO BUSINESS WITH FCB.”
